Register Now for Harford County's Free Emergency Preparedness Training Beginning Feb. 5

BEL AIR, Md., (Jan. 28, 2020) - Tragedies in the news are a powerful reminder that emergencies can happen anywhere at any time. Find out what you need to know to protect yourself and your loved ones in a range of hazardous situations. Registration is now open for Harford County's "Prepare Because You Care" emergency preparedness training program. This free program was developed by the Harford County Department of Emergency Services.

The next four-week session of this program will be offered on Wednesday evenings from February 5 - 26, 2020. All classes will be held from 7:00 - 9:00 p.m. at the Harford County government building in Forest Hill at 2220 Ady Road. Due to the nature of some content, participants younger than 18 are permitted only when attending with a parent or guardian.

Registration is required, as available seats fill up quickly and space is limited.

Participants must attend all four classes, which will cover the following topics:

- Emergency Preparedness/Family Preparedness; Fire Extinguisher Safety
- Active Assailant; Law Enforcement in Harford County; Citizens Police Academy
- Bleeding Control/Stop the Bleed
- CPR/AED Certification; Graduation
