The Friends of Jerusalem Mill received a 2019 Historic Preservation Project Award for the stabilization and restoration of the 1803 Jericho Road Stone Bank Barn. The massive stone barn was damaged by fire in 1961, followed by years of neglect and overgrowth that severely deteriorated the barn’s ruins. In 2017-2018 the barn’s stone walls were stabilized and restored, creating a “preserved ruin” and saving an important part of the historic Jerusalem Mill Village.
