

(For the website)

2017 HISTORIC PRESERVATION AWARDS

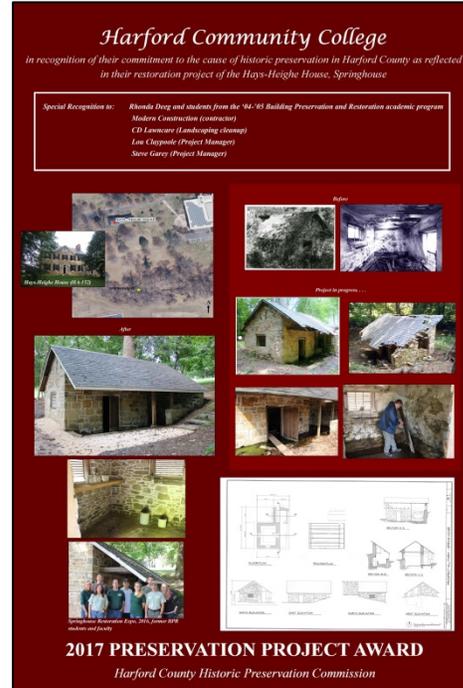

The Harford County Historic Preservation Commission (HPC) announced its 22nd annual award recipients during a ceremony May 18, 2017 at the Liriodendron Mansion in Bel Air. Presented each May in honor of National Historic Preservation Month, the awards recognize individuals and organizations that have demonstrated their commitment to the preservation of the County's historical and cultural resources.

PRESERVATION PROJECT AWARD

The Preservation Project Award recognizes significant achievements in preserving, restoring or finding a sensitive adaptive re-use for the County's built architecture. The 2016 award winners are:

Harford Community College for the preservation & restoration of the Hays-Heighe House Springhouse.

Steppingstone Farm Museum for the interior and exterior rehabilitation of the historic Gilman Paul House, for its continued use as an education center for the museum.

SPECIAL PRESERVATION AWARD

The Special Preservation Award acknowledges groups or individuals whose programming, activities, publications, exhibits, demonstrations or presentations focus on Harford County's historic architecture, archaeology, or cultural heritage. The 2017 award winner is:

Campaign 42 in recognition of their commitment to the cause of promoting, preserving and documenting African American History in Harford County, as reflected in their weekly pamphlets.

Campaign 42

in recognition of their commitment to the cause of promoting, preserving and documenting African American History in Harford County.

African American History of Harford County, Maryland
Alfred B. Hillen
1842 - 1844
January 19, 2016
Pamphlet 0012
June 2, 2016

African American History of Harford County, Maryland
Dembytown
Part 2 of a series
Pamphlet 0022
June 2, 2016

African American History of Harford County, Maryland
MARCH TO JOBS
1935
Harford County November 11, 2016
Pamphlet 0032
December 2, 2016

African American History of Harford County, Maryland
African American Music Series
From Africa to Harford County
Part 1 of 2
Pamphlet 0048
December 2, 2016

African American History of Harford County, Maryland
The Push for Higher Education
Shore-Ca Green & Bal Air Colored High Schools
Part 1
Pamphlet 0040
October 7, 2016

Bolstering history

Volunteers working to tell the stories of African-Americans in Harford

African American History of Harford County, Maryland
Consolidating Harford County's Colored Schools
Part 6
Pamphlet 0041
October 14, 2016

African American History of Harford County, Maryland
Capitol Park
1797
February 1, 2016
Pamphlet 0051

African American History of Harford County, Maryland
James Mitchell Johnson
From Va. to Harford County
Pamphlet 0052
December 30, 2016

African American History of Harford County, Maryland
James R. Dineen, Sr.
April 18, 1914 - June 2, 2016
Harford County Historian
Pamphlet 0026
June 24, 2016

African American History of Harford County, Maryland
Harriet (Caly) Baker
1829-1919
Part 1 of 2
Pamphlet 0026
July 1, 2016

2017 SPECIAL PRESERVATION AWARD

Harford County Historic Preservation Commission

LOCAL GOVERNMENT PRESERVATION AWARD

The Local Government Preservation Award recognizes those on the local government level for their commitment to the cause of historic preservation in Harford County. The 2017 award winners are:

The Town of Bel Air in recognition of their commitment to the cause of historic preservation in Harford County as reflected in the adaptive reuse project of the Reckord Armory Complex garages into Armory Marketplace.

Barry Glassman, Harford County Executive, in recognition of his commitment to the cause of historic preservation in Harford County as reflected in the relocation and reinterpretation of the historic Joesting-Gorsuch House.

STEWARDSHIP AWARD

Stewardship Award recognizes outstanding effort and intent toward the maintenance and preservation of an historic property, structure and/or site in Harford County over a lengthy period of time. The 2017 award winner is:

William Shimek in recognition of his commitment to the cause of historic preservation in Harford County as reflected in his 30+ years of stewardship, preservation, and rehabilitation of historic Noble's Mill.

