First Harford County Hispanic Festival to be Held this Weekend

(Bel Air, MD) - - "El Camino" Hispanic Ministries in cooperation with Harford County Government invites the public to attend the first Harford County Latin Festival to be held on June 13, 2009, 2-5 pm on the grounds of Grace Assembly of God Church, 2303 Churchville Road Bel Air, MD.

The emphasis of the Latin Fest is to increase public awareness of Hispanic culture and the diversity of the Hispanic population in Harford County. The event will include many fun and interesting activities including music, food, games, free market, face painting, as well as community assistance, public safety demonstrations and information. The event is free of charge.

The purpose is to bring a positive impact on the Harford County Hispanic population by offering medical and dental assistance, free food and clothing through El Camino ministries, government agencies and local Hispanic businesses.

This is a family oriented event supported by Harford County Government and the Hispanic Community. For more information on how you can participate in this celebration, call (410) 322 -8738 or visit: http://graceofbelair.com/El_Camino.html.
