County Executive David R. Craig to Serve on Executive Board of the Boy Scouts

(Bel Air, MD) - - Harford County Executive David R. Craig has been appointed to the executive board of the Baltimore Area Council, Boy Scouts of America. The 65 member executive board of the Baltimore Area Council, Boy Scouts of America works to develop resources and programs for over 35,000 Scouts in Central Maryland.

Craig, a staunch supporter of scouting and scouting programs, was recognized by the Boy Scouts earlier this year and received the Silver Beaver Award. Additionally, County Executive Craig is the father of an Eagle Scout, Randy Craig who currently serves as a member of the Havre de Grace City Council.

In addition to his duties as county executive for Harford County, Craig has served as chair of the Board of Directors for the Baltimore Metropolitan Council; as member of the Economic Alliance of the Greater Baltimore Board of Directors; and member of the R. Adams Cowley Shock Trauma Center Board of Visitors. County Executive Craig currently serves as 1st Vice President of the Maryland Association of Counties and is also active as a member of various philanthropic and charitable organizations.

Commenting on his appointment to the executive board of the Baltimore Area Council, Boy Scouts of America, County Executive Craig stated, “I am honored to serve on the executive board of such a distinguished organization. The Boy Scouts of America have a strong, rich heritage of service to our youth and I am pleased to offer my talents to help further the tenets of scouting,” Craig stated.
