County Executive Bob Cassilly Announces Application Period for Nominations to Board of Education

BEL AIR, Md., (Dec. 13, 2022) – Harford County Executive Bob Cassilly on Tuesday invited residents interested in serving on the Harford County Board of Education to apply. The County Executive appoints three members to the Board each for a two-year term that begins in 2023.

“Robust citizen oversight and participation in the Board of Education is crucial to delivering world-class schools for our students. I look forward to reviewing applications and resumes from those interested in contributing their time and talent for this purpose.”

Applications are due no later than Friday, January 13th. Applicants must have been registered to vote in Harford County for the past three years. Those interested in applying can do so at this link.
