Harford County Executive Cassilly Statement on Key Bridge Collapse

BEL AIR, Md., (March 26, 2024) – Harford County Executive Bob Cassilly issued the following statement on today’s early morning collapse of the Key Bridge.

“The citizens of Harford County send prayers for the safety of everyone affected by this morning’s Key Bridge collapse. Our thanks go out to the first responders who are braving the cold waters and all those who are helping with search and rescue operations. Special thanks to Harford’s Department of Emergency Services personnel, including our swift water rescue teams, and local volunteer fire companies for responding within minutes of the request for assistance in this Maryland tragedy.”
