Harford County Executive Glassman Lauds School Board Decision to Start School After Labor Day

BEL AIR, Md., (Jan. 14, 2020) - County Executive Barry Glassman issued the following statement today in response to the Harford County Board of Education's decision on Monday to start the 2020-21 school year after Labor Day.

"I want to thank the members of the Harford County Board of Education who voted last night to start school after Labor Day. This was a good decision for Harford County families and businesses, and our agricultural community."

Glassman has been advocating for the board to adopt a post-Labor Day start.
