Harford Executive Elevates Cindy Mumby to Director of Office of Governmental and Community Relations

BEL AIR, Md. (Sept.8, 2015) - Harford County Executive Barry Glassman announced today that he will be elevating current Deputy Director of Harford County's Office of Governmental and Community Relations, Cindy Mumby, to become its new Director.

County Executive Glassman said during his announcement, "Cindy Mumby has been an invaluable member of my management team during our first nine months. She has been an effective spokesperson for the changes and direction that the Administration is taking Harford County. She also embodies my policies of transparency and openness with our Community Partners and the Baltimore Area media."

Mrs. Mumby will continue to serve as the spokesperson for the Glassman Administration along with overseeing the Office of Governmental and Community Relations and the Division of Citizen Affairs and Administrative Services. She will also continue in her role as the County's first dedicated liaison to the Board of Education.

Ms. Mumby is a former managing partner of the news website The Dagger, and co-host of "The Harford Edge", a public affairs radio program. Through many years of professional and volunteer work, she has built productive relationships with community members and decision-makers, especially in the field of public education. Ms. Mumby holds a bachelor's degree in business administration from the State University of New York at Albany.
