Vocabulary

Gender

A social construct based on emotional, behavioral, and cultural characteristics attached to a person's assigned biological sex. A person's social and/or legal status as male or female.

Stereotype

An exaggerated and oversimplified belief about an entire group of people, such as an ethnic or religious group or a gender.

Male & Female Stereotypes

- How are boys and girls “supposed” to behave?
- What are they supposed to like/dislike?
- How are they supposed to look, think, feel, and act?
- What are they supposed to be good at/bad at?

Video: Redraw the Balance

While watching the video, think about how gender stereotypes influence our views. How can this be harmful?

Video Discussion Questions

- How did the students feel once the guests revealed their identities?
- Do you think it was easy or difficult for students to change their perspectives? Explain.
- What can we do to help break down stereotypes?

Male & Female Stereotypes

- What were some of the stereotypes that you came up with in your groups?
- Did any of them make you feel self-conscious as your group was creating them?

Scenario Analysis

Work in your groups to analyze the given scenario and answer the questions.

Stereotypes Review

- Stereotypes can make people feel trapped or boxed in
- Sometimes people may fit into gender stereotypes, but almost all of us have something that makes us different and unique.
- What is something that makes you different and unique?

ClosureExit Ticket

Is it easy or difficult to view gender roles in a different way? Explain. How is this accepted within our society?

What are several ways changing gender roles have affected male and female relationships? Think about how roles have changed in the workplace, within families, and in social settings.
