

HARFORD COUNTY REUSE & RECYCLE DIRECTORY

Online Recycling & Reuse Resources

General Information

www.mdrecycles.org

This website is provided by the Maryland Department of the Environment and provides statewide information on recycling.

www.earth911.com

Earth911 is a privately owned, for-profit company that specializes in providing consumers with accessible and actionable recycling information across the country. This website allows you to search by item to find the nearest recycling option available and provides creative ideas, blogs, videos and more on how to reduce, reuse & recycle.

Batteries

www.call2recycle.org

Call2Recycle is the only free rechargeable battery and cellphone collection program in North America. The site allows you to search by zip code to find the nearest free drop-off location available.

Plastic Bags

www.hilexpoly.com/going-green/bag-2-bag

Most area grocery stores offer plastic bag recycling. Simply bring your bags on your next visit and drop them off in the properly labeled bin. Consider using reusable bags instead of plastic bags too! Many grocery stores offer a 3-5 cent discount per bag, so it is better for your bank account and the environment!! Check out the website for more plastic related items that can be placed into the Bag-2-Bag container!

Packaging

www.terracycle.net

Terracycle recycles non-recyclables and hard to recycle items into new, viable products. Join a brigade and earn cash for your efforts! Many area schools utilize Terracycle brigades for fundraising purposes, so be sure to check with your local school to see how you can help! Visit the website on more specifics on what can be collected and join!

www.epspackaging.org

Visit website to find the closest location near you to recycle expanded polystyrene foam. Contact the location to verify acceptable items and to schedule a drop-off time.

Hosiery

www.nononsense.com/PantyhoseRecycling.aspx

Can't figure out what to do with all of those pantyhose with runs and holes in them? No nonsense provides a pantyhose recycling program, it doesn't matter what brand they are, simply mail them to the company following the guidelines provided on their webpage that is listed above.

Swap & Trade Groups

groups.freecycle.org/freecycleharford/description

The Freecycle Network is an online community of people who are giving and getting things for free in their area and therefore are keeping good stuff out of landfills. Membership is free, and everything posted must be FREE, legal and appropriate for all ages. Please visit the website and carefully read all specific guidelines before joining or participating.

www.swap.com

Swap.com is worldwide a swapping site for members to exchange clothes, accessories, books, baby items, coupons, etc. Membership is free and as a member you can set up your own swap shop for other users to browse. Please visit the website and carefully read all specific guidelines before joining or participating.

www.swapmamas.com

SwapMamas is an online community for mothers to swap items they no longer use for items they are looking for. No money is exchanged and is it free to join. Please visit the website and carefully read all specific guidelines before joining or participating.

www.swapstyle.com

Swapstyle is a worldwide online community for members to swap fashion they no longer want for items they are in search of and it is in its 9th year of operation with over 55,000 members. Membership is free. Please visit the website and carefully read all specific guidelines before joining or participating.

www.thredup.com

thredUP is an online consignment shop specializing in children's clothing. Users can send their gently used clothing in a thredUP bag ($4.95 bag deposit required) to be resold to other users. You earn cash or credit to purchase other user's items at discounted prices. Please visit the website and carefully read all specific guidelines before joining or participating.

Do you have an idea for our reuse directory? Are you a business or organization that would like to be included?
